A NEW VENTURE IN CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

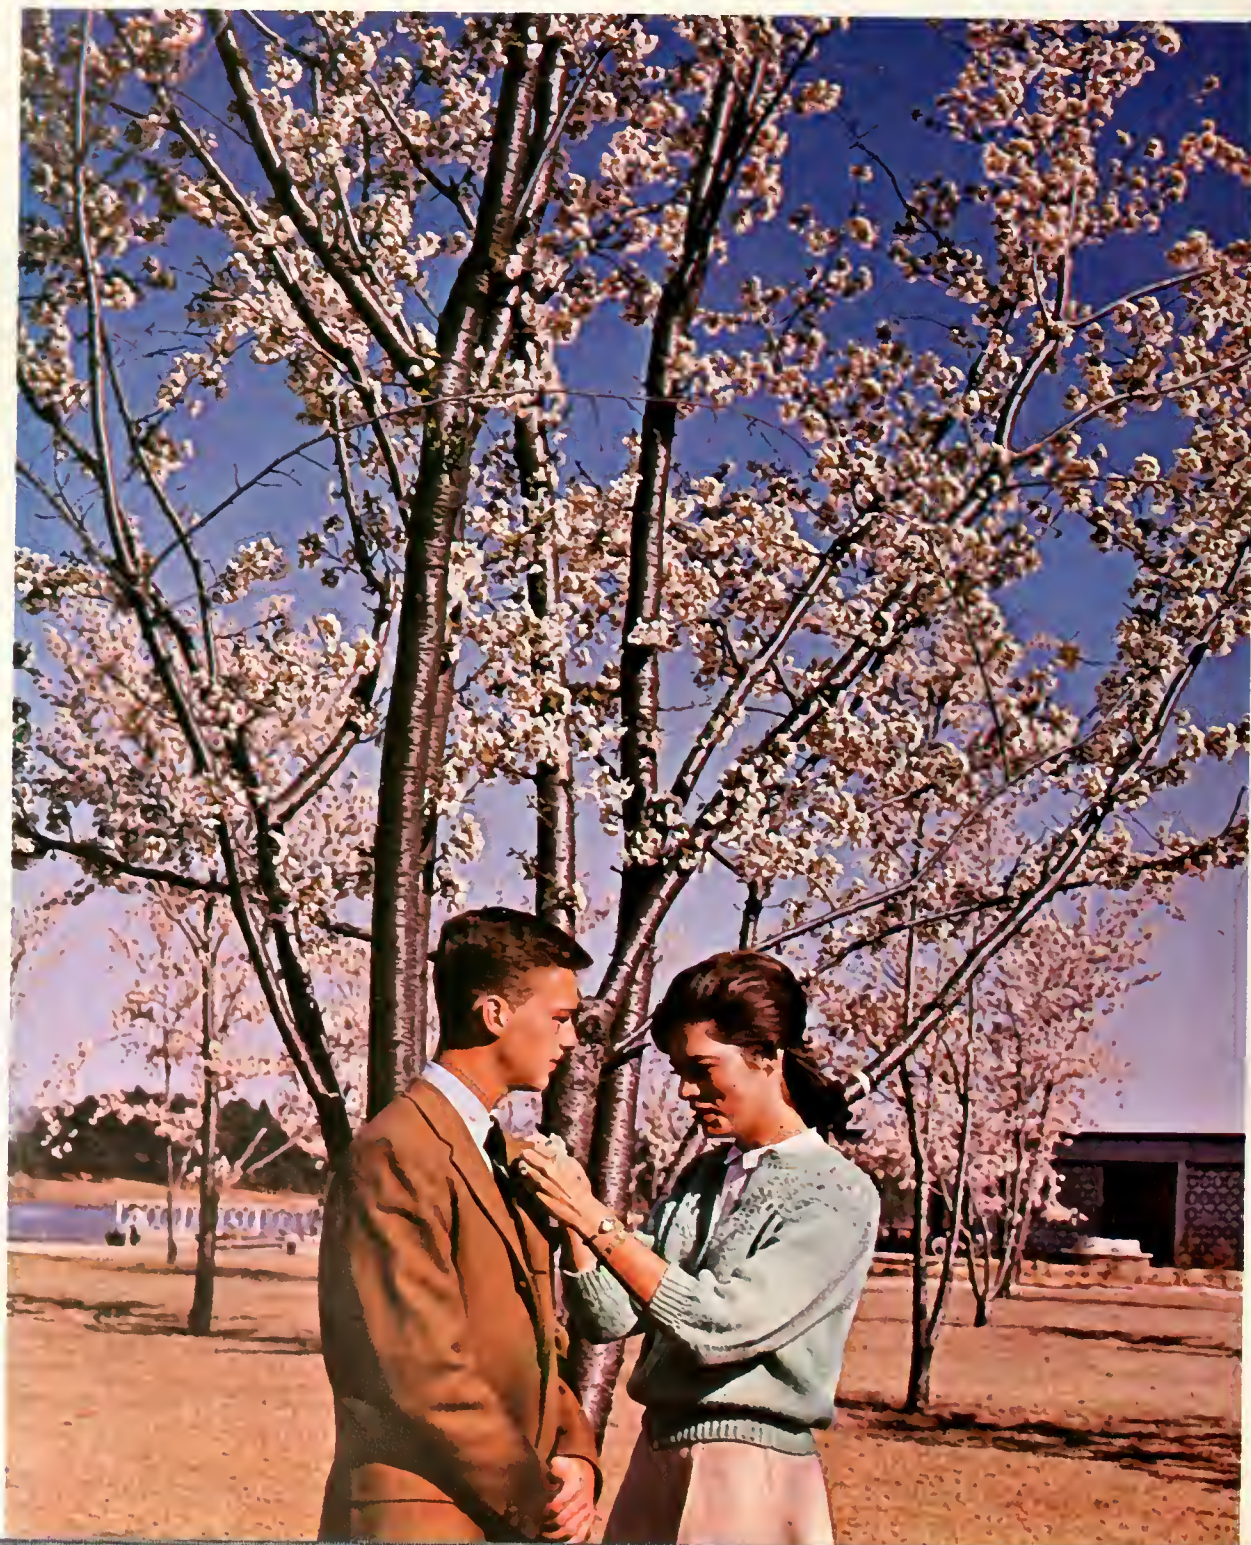

CHALLENGING COMPLACENCY AND

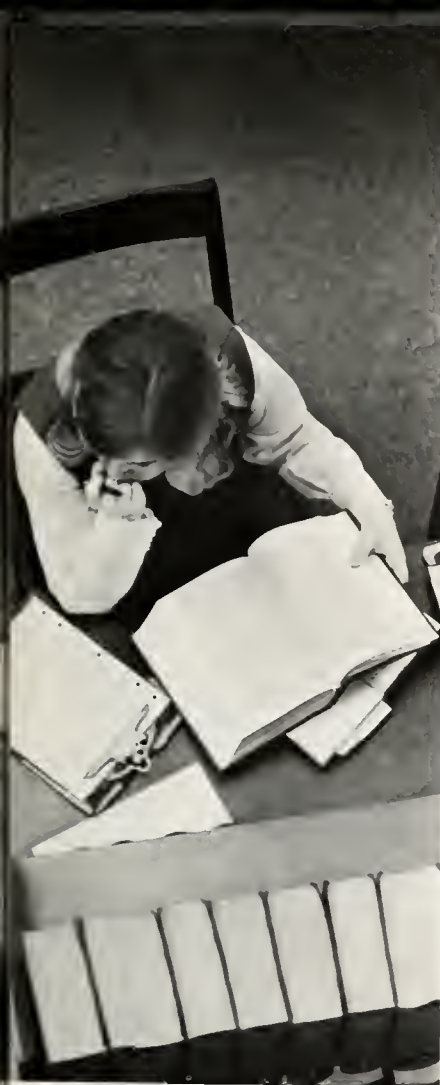

MEDIOCRITY IN ALL OF LIFE

SEEKING TO

COMBINE WITHOUT APOLOGY . . .

THE LOVE OF GOD AND THE LOVE OF LEARNING . . .

THE SPIRITUAL AND THE INTELLECTUAL

COMMITTED TO PURSUIT OF EXCELLENCE

IN ITS ACADEMIC,
ITS SOCIAL,
AND ITS RELIGIOUS
PROGRAM _____

... a community of living and learning, where students and professors together seek encounters with truth, mining new meanings out of old words like wisdom, honor, Christianity ... searching for fresh insights into old values like justice and beauty and loyalty ...

... observing the universal rhythm of thinking and doing, of reflection and action, of detachment and commitment, we study, work, play, sing, dance, pray ...

... in lecture hall, in laboratory, in the library, on the athletic field ... lounge, dorm, woods, lake ...

... we live with books, friends, music, drama, rare hours of talk, priceless moments of worship ... listening, loving ...

... four years to stir up meanings ...

... to store memories of cherry trees, the causewalk, the concert band, the Knights, Christianity and Culture, our original Peace Corps, the Highland Players, sunset over the lake ...

... to extend ourselves, to stretch our minds, to enlarge our spirits ...

... to make some progress toward maturity, toward sensitivity and responsibility, toward goodness and God ...

THIS IS ST. ANDREWS

Dedication . . .

To one who exemplifies
St. Andrews in his youth enthusiasm honesty integrity service and devotion . . .
 we dedicate
The 1965 Lamp and Shield.

Dedication of De Tamble Library

An energetic fund campaign, months of banging and pouring concrete, heated competition among students as they raced up and down the halls moving books—all of this meant the DeTamble Library could finally open its doors in May, 1964. On October 3 a proud St. Andrews student body attended the dedication. Dr. Douglas Knight, president of Duke University, made the major address . . . and it was a great day for the academics.

"Yes, I'm making the big move."

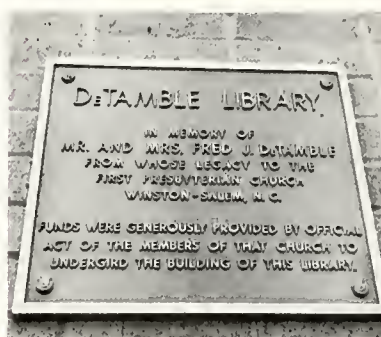

"Unaccustomed as I am to public speaking . . ."

"We do now formally dedicate . . ."

"Thanks to Winston-Salem First . . ."

"Bottoms up."

Awards Night - 1964

Before spring fever knocks out our outstanding students, we recognize them in the Annual Awards Night . . . marshals, Honor Society members, the most outstanding dormitory, and the most diligent members of the clubs are among those recognized in this affair —sponsored by the Inter-Dormitory Council.

"Oh, well . . . you can't win 'em all!"

Marshals

Trudy Dawkins, Mary Hedrick, Betsy Gates, Mary Elizabeth Ricks, Phyllis Smith, Harriett Horne, Maggie Abrams, Paul Grubbs, Robert Noll, Mike Long, Jack Cole.

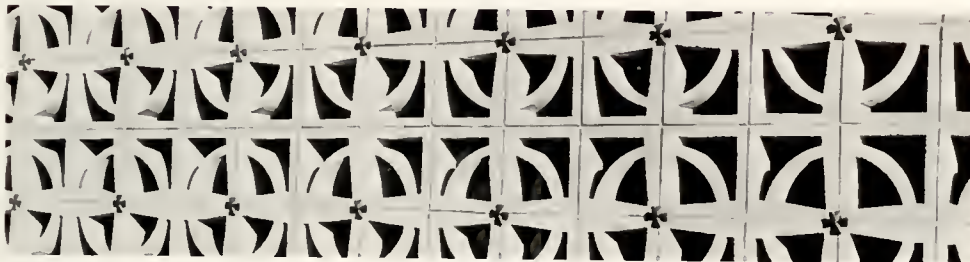

Three years of inquiring, prodding, and excellence in all campus activities are rewarded with the marshal's baldric . . . and the honor of serving as student hosts for St. Andrews at official functions.

Paul Grubbs, Maggie Abrams—Co-chiefs

St. Andrews Honor Society

The annual awards night is the scene of rewards for diligent study and God-given intelligence; in this case, membership in the Honor Society is the ultimate. Only juniors and seniors with at least a 5.0 average and five semesters to their credit are invited to join. Whe . . e . . w!

ACTIVITIES

Student Government Association

Choices surround us with a circus clamor—to do many things or nothing, to mature or drift. To bring order to a potential anarchy of activities, the Student Association builds its structure of shared discipline. Each student's membership offers him a chance not just to be, but to become—to grow as he shares the life of an ever-changing corporate community.

 "I was called Hop-Along in the old flicks, but you can call me Percy."

Honor Court

Blood, sweat, and tears to the wee hours of the morning . . . a smoke filled room, a light joke to ease the tension . . . and then the decision!!! The judicial branch of St. Andrews student government operates through two main bodies. The Honor Court has five elected students and two advisers, and hears appeals from minor courts. The Student-Faculty Judiciary Committee sits on major cases with five students and four faculty members. Their functions: to uphold social and academic standards; to supply the backbone for our moral being.

"Rooten Tooten Wooten."

Do you need help? Appeal to the Inter-Dormitory Council, composed of the dorm presidents. Entrusted with making regulations, they deal with such outstanding problems as the amount of grass in the court yards, the rules applicable during water fights, and the exact measure of soap that should be put in the washing machines. In addition to making decisions, they also sponsor a year-long dormitory contest culminating in the annual "Awards Night."

Women's Chorus

Student Life Committee

Duties, duties, duties—five of them. And we have reviewed club charters all year . . . When will we ever get around to making policy decisions for the administration?

Dr. Hester, Chairman

Bill Moore, Mr. Pearce, Mr. Ludlow, Lonnie Mann, Dr. Hawk, Margaret Abrams, Trudy Dawkins, Paul Grubbs, Scottie Warren, Miss Morris, Dr. Hester, Mr. Peden, Carolyn Combs, Roger Pike.

Phi Beta Lambda

Jim Moore, President
 "Of course, we fraternity men . . ."

A national business fraternity composed of men and women (?) . . . spurring the creative capacities of young executives . . . field trips to the YWCA . . . business seminars to New York City.

Fraternity? Social fraternity? Organizational fraternity? What is this club? Where is our charter? Maybe the Student Life Committee misplaced it . . . A Kiwanis Club sponsored service organization consisting of men of good character and scholastic standing . . .

Circle K Club

Bill Campbell, President

Radio Club

Fsssst . . . Pop . . . Pop . . . Crack . . . Zoom . . . These are the sounds of WSAP warming up its equipment again. It's wonderful! Turn your dial to 590, relax, and enjoy the music spun out through hours of long, hard work by members of the Radio Club. Emerging through the maze of circuit diagrams, junction boxes, and tubes, these electronic bugs gain first-hand knowledge of the world of radio Communications and entertainment.

Jim Moore, President
"Burp!"

"H-m-m-m-m . . . this is your pilot speaking."

Jim Moore, Suzanne McLeod, Bill Shomo.
"Hi, there! We're your friendly Ford dealers."

"See . . . doesn't that feel good."

Sigma Lambda Gamma . . . the old Classics Club . . . finding new adventure in musty old volumes . . . "Well, this is all Greek to me" . . .

Mac Cole, President; Steve Pitt, Treasurer; Dr. Carver, Adviser.

Participation in the National Collegiate Bridge Tournament . . . the satisfaction of trumping a "Carver" or maybe even a "Ludlow" . . . good, competitive fun for students and faculty.

Bridge Club

The Lance

Lonnie Mann, Henry Steele, Louise Kohl, Ernest Badgett, Gill Rock.
"Which young couple has that Ipana smile?"

Dear Editor,

The handbook says that The Lance is to be published every two weeks and requires news reporting to be presented well. I've seen more! A mirror of student agony, turgid writing, irresponsible gripes, and fun-filled occasions . . . a reflection of life at St. Andrews. Thanks for a dripping rag, man.

Lonnie Mann, Editor

"You see, men, the social implications . . ."

Cheryl Monroe, Lynn Terry, Steve Pitt, Ted Foy, Billy Miller, Adger Smyth, David Sifford, Ed Butterworth, Allen Hancock.

"Frankly, I think they're looking at the wrong thing!"

Highland Players

Follow, follow, follow, follow, follow the drama department's play-producing agency through

One-act productions

The House by the Stable

Grab and Grace

Christ in the Concrete City

The Cenci

Biedermann and the Firebugs

The Fantasticks

Don't round the corner near the drama department's LA nest too quickly, or you may get run down by a Japanese bandit waving a sword and crying, "Tajomaru rape women!!!!"

"Confucius says . . . man with holes in shirt like . . . have grubby goats in pitt."

"All right, who put cement in the Secret . . ."

"Baubles, bangles, etc . . ."

"... and this is called an eagle."

"Well, you win a few . . . you lose a few."

Mr. McDonald, Adviser
 "I don't want to play dress-up any more."

"Slave rest period."

"We've got to go to the labor-r-r-atory."

"I wear weird clothes, but not dresses!"

"Well, now you'll have to marry him."

"Twinkle, twinkle, little star, how I . . ."

Lamp and Shield

Praying and crying . . . hysteria . . . and working, maybe . . . long overdue headlines . . . borrowed typewriters and "Boner," our first casualty . . . "from things that go bump in the night, Good Lord, deliver us" . . . a reflection pool of St. Andrews . . .

Trudy Dawkins, Editor
"Hello, Dean Hester . . . about that full page spread on Roger's."

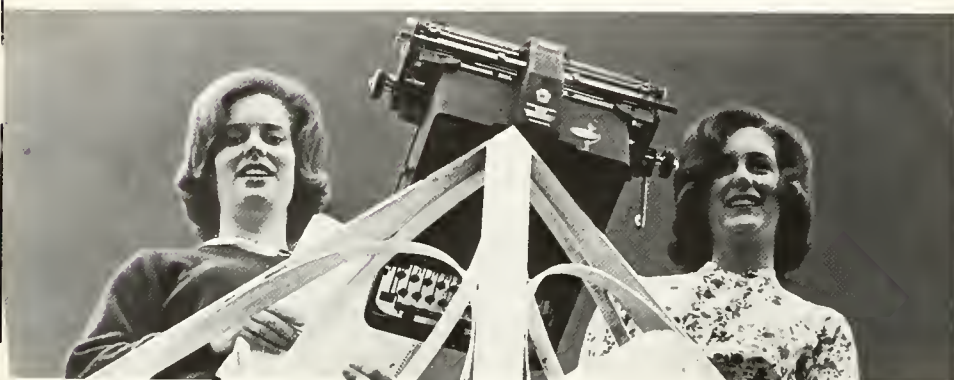

Jeff Vandergriff, Copy Editor;
Caroline Clower, Assistant Editor
"I got it off a drunk Mau-Mau at the tiger hunt last spring."

"Have you seen Thad?"

Carol Hovis and Donna Southers, Activities
"I feel so cool with Ice Blue Secret."

Alice Ragland and Susan Sory, Features
"People drop these on their fingers."

Frank Grier, Sports
"Barf or Scarf or Rarph or . . . Frank!"

Toula Yeapanis, Dee Nicholson, June
Thompson, Sue Hayes, Administration and Classes
"Dear Ann Landers, . . ."

Bob Hatcher, Business Manager
 "Ho, ho, ho . . . nutz . . . get your reindeer
 offa my roof."

Doris Ann Smith, Secretary
 "Gee, Mr. Heafner . . . I sure appreciate this big chance."

Dick Stone, Caption Editor
Kay Holland, Business Staff
 "Yes, Wazoo, there really is a Santa Clause . . ."

Sandy Crowell, Bill Moore, Johnny Ogle
 Business Staff

ADMINISTRATION

Ansley C. Moore, President . . .

Peripatetic president, diploma donor, trustee tender, pulpit palpiter . . . only one man . . . who rides a dozen tigers (not to mention the faculty!) Probably none but "Miss Margaret" will ever know how many hours, how much agony, what physical toll he has paid for St. Andrews. Our hats go off in salute to our leader for these four college years—cheers to "A. C."

Four years ago we came here to a new campus, a new curriculum, a new experience . . . we were the guinea pigs . . . we remember those years, watching St. Andrews grow and experiencing many events which now are only memories — wild water fights and swimming in the lake, girls in at 10:30 and lights out at eleven, cafeteria riot with an effigy, candy sales and decorating the Christmas tree . . . we have learned much about books and maybe more about life — but which is more important? . . . Four years . . .

Bewildered, befuddled, and just plain confused . . . If he asks me where my beanie is, I'll poke him in the eye . . . I wonder if Davenport has seen this month's bunny . . . Foo Yung say, "ugh! upperclassmen steal our women." . . . Payne, payne, oh what a pain . . . quality point ratio? Would you mind going over that again . . . boy, McColl is almost as pretty as Laurinburg . . . just think, next year I'll be a sophomore . . . maybe.

IN MEMORIAM

MARTHA FAIRLY McNAIR

1902-1964

For her radiant example of Christian love and faith . . .
For her constant help in time of trouble . . .
For her loving dedication to St. Andrews . . .
And for her presence—which provided her own eulogy.
